An efficient design packed full with everything you need

Outdoor living. A large backyard for the kids. Maybe a dog. Definitely a big deck and a barbeque. These are the benefits of living in a home on your own piece of land. But often they are forgotten in the excitement of designing your new home. A secluded rumpus, a large master suite and a huge wardrobe all add to the footprint of your home. Perhaps however, the answer is to go up? The Grenada includes all these features, and the backyard, for a great price.
